

Bridal Held for Annis Gilbert And Nicholas Joseph Kukulan

Annis Kendall Gilbert and Nicholas Joseph Kukulan, who both received master's degrees in social work in June from the University of Southern California, were married yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Clark B. Olsen, a Unitarian minister of Morristown, N.J., performed the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Frederick Spofford Gilbert of New Canaan, Conn., the bride's stepmother.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. Gilbert, who was vice president and general manager of Time-Life Broadcast, Inc., and former general manager of Time magazine. Her mother is the late Annis Stearns Gilbert of New Canaan and Point O' Woods, Fire Island.

Mr. Kukulan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kukulan of Berkeley and Carmel, Calif. His father is president of the Paramount Export Company, fruit exporter in San Francisco.

The bride graduated from the Westover School, Pine Manor Junior College and Pomona College. Her husband graduated from the Colorado Rocky Mountain School and Pitzer College in Claremont, Calif.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Stearns of

Mrs. Nicholas Kukulan, formerly Annis Gilbert

Orange, N.J., and Wilton, Conn., and the late Mr. and Mrs. James S. Gilbert of Englewood, N.J. The bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Willard Von Beschwitz of Seattle and the late Christian Hilstad and the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kukulan of Tacoma, Wash.