

150 SCHOLARS GET DEGREES AT ILLINOIS

Doctorates Are Won by Area Residents

North side Chicago and its suburbs were represented with 150 scholars in recent graduation rites at the University of Illinois. Of that number, 22 students received advanced degrees.

Stuart A. Narrod, 3270 Lake Shore dr., and Ayere Yusa, 4520 Magnolia av., received doctor of philosophy degrees. The degree of doctor of veterinary medicine was conferred upon Alexander J. Winter, 190 E. Pearson st., and Walter G. Schwalbe, Lake Villa.

North area Chicagoans receiving master's degrees were Robert M. Beckwith, 7007 Ridge av.; Walter Bobotek, 5241 Winthrop av.; Charles C. Doenecke, 2218 Winnemac av.; Myron S. Fink, 908 Winona st.; Claire M. Gerbeck, 1624 Gregory st., and Howard Holzman, 5030 Winthrop av.

Others from north side neighborhoods were Robert J. Jenicek, 5705 Miltimore av.; Theodore Kelz, 933 Ainslie st.; Ronald A. Maina, 6241 Winthrop av.; John E. Taylor, 2835 Jarlath av., and Mary E. Ward, 1340 Birchwood av.

Suburban residents receiving master's degrees were Evanston residents Deane A. Houlahan, 1924 Keeney st.; Henry E. Jacobs, 1251 Asbury av., and Phyllis C. Shepherd, 2440 Lawndale st.

Also, Clare S. Mackey, Glencoe; Verner R. Ekstrom, Glenview; Rona K. Fields, Lincolnwood, and Kenneth W. Kolence, Waukegan.